An Admirable Circular.

Below we publish the Address of Dr. John W. Representative from Grainger mounty. He is the first man who recruited a company for the Union torney of the first circuit, who died a martyr in the rebel prison pen at Madison, Georgia. Another brother, Russel Thornburgh, was a Major in mmertal First Tennessee Cavalry, and now bears an honorable soar received under the "stars and stripes." Another brother, Duff Green Thornburgh, was a gallant Union soldier, one of the true men of the last Legislature, and the candidate of the Republican party for Representative from Jefferson in the next Legislature.

Dr. Thornburgh's address is multum in parco. In a few words it presents the whole question.

TO THE VOTERS OF GRAINGER COUNTY. Fellow-Citizens :- I am a candidate to represent you in the lower House of the next Legislature. From the beginning, through the war, and until the present time, a Union man, my purpose is, if elected, to maintain the principles of the Union men of the country and of the State. By the rebels and their friends the Union party has been denounced with unceasing batred. Branded as Abolitioniets Black Republicans, Lincolnites and Tories, during the war, they are now stigmstized by their enemies right and opposed to all that is radically wrong; closely ever since. Their opponents, in the main, and a few deserters from the Union ranks; the same who voted for "separation" and "representation" on the 8th of June, 1861; who voted for the " permanent Constitution" on the the 1st of August, 1861; who persecuted the Union men, drove them property for a base currency; insulted their fami-lies and plundered their homes. The Difference Between Rebellion and Civil War.

Chief Justice Chase a few days since delivered at Raleigh, North Carolina, a highly important decision, which is of deep interest, both because of its ruling in a personal case and of its national application. The facts are these: A citizen of North Carolina, previous to the outbreak of the war, gave his note to a citizen of Pennsylvania. When the Below we publish a filthy, blackguard war broke out the Confederate Government made him pay to it the value of that note, and receipted By lying and hypocrisy, Frazier became vanian sued for the recovery of the debt, which was failed gone into the Peruvian service and become refused by the North Carolinian on the ground that a member of the Senate. H. S. OHAMBERLAIN, Saluting a Traitor. Peru having made a fuse because our naval the head of its fleet, Secretary Seward undertook to smooth over the matter, and say our officers should tesy to Benedict Arnold because Great Britain gave him a commission and uniform; nor would any general officer in the American army have treated him with respect. Were the French government to appoint Mr. Slidell, or the British government Mr. Mason, minister to the United States, I cannot suppose that our government or its executive offiwould receive either of those unpardonable rebels, or extend to them official courtesy. By the same rule I believe that our naval officers should be everned as regards their intercourse with the late amander Tucker, who, while yet a rebel against our government, has been placed at the head of the Peruvian navy. If the Peruvian government thinks proper to receive into its service criminals and fucitives from the United States, we cannot prevent t; but having failed in comity towards the United States, that government cannot, I think, complain any disrespect or want of courtesy on the part our naval officers in declining to exchange civ-

ities with such fugitives or criminals from our This is exceedingly well put, and we have no doubt it has had a share in the discharge of the rebel admiral by the Peruvian authorities. At any rate, that agreeable fact is just reported from Peru. Expulsion. HALL OF TURLEY LODGE, No. 276, OF FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS.
